

Evil Incorporated

Stage 3

Finally, it is time to reveal to the world my Needlessly Big Weather Machine (BETA version) bringing about horrors beyond Man's comprehension. With my plans intact and my minions sent forth through the MAZE to assemble it, I now retire to the Underground Secret Headquarters of Doom or USHD if you like.

My 3 deeds will herald the end of simple direction clues, and the citizens of this planet will have no choice but to elect Evil their new ruler.
